

Mosunmola Regina Ogunmolaji
University of Florida | Department of History
25 Keene-Flint Hall, Gainesville, FL 32611
mogunmolaji@ufl.edu | 352-204-3703

EDUCATION

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA

PhD in History 2021-Present

UNIVERSITY OF LAGOS

Master of Arts in History and Strategic Studies 2018-2019
Thesis: "A History of Malaria in Colonial Lagos, 1870-1960"

Bachelor of Arts in History and Strategic Studies 2011-2015
Thesis: "The Evolution of Feminist Organizations in Nigeria, 1947-2010"

RESEARCH AND TEACHING INTERESTS

African History; History of Science and Medicine; Gender Studies

WORK EXPERIENCE

University of Florida

2021-Present Project Coordinator, Oak Hammock Oral History Project, Samuel Proctor Oral History Program

University of Lagos

2020 Assistant Lecturer
2018 -2020 Graduate Teaching Assistant, Nigerian Women in National Development
Graduate Teaching Assistant, Introduction to Historiography
Graduate Teaching Assistant, African Historiography
Graduate Teaching Assistant, African Urban History

Tudun Wada Government College, Kano

2016-2017 Instructor, Civil Education under the National Youth Service Corp

COMSA Research and Survey Services

2015-2016 Researcher

PUBLICATIONS

2021 "‘Madam Due Process’: The Public Life of Obiageli Ezekwesili," co-authored with Oyinade Adekunle, Lagos Notes and Records Vol. 26, no. 1, February 28, 2021.

CONFERENCES/PANELS

- 2019 4th Lagos Studies Association Conference.
Paper Presented: “Fighting Malaria: Research and Colonial Biomedicine in Lagos”
- 2017 Conference in Honor of Professor J.A. Atanda at Olabisi Onabanjo University, Nigeria
Paper Presented: “From Olufunmilayo Ransome-Kuti to Olabisi Olateru-Olagbegi: The Changing Phases of Female Activism”
- 2015 Panel Group Discussion on Kenneth Dike’s Trade and Politics in Niger Delta, 1830-1850 at The Lagos Book and Arts Festival.

GRANTS, FELLOWSHIPS, PRIZES & AWARDS

- 2020-2023 Grinter Fellowship, Graduate School, University of Florida
- 2017 Leadership Award for Community Development Service (Road Safety Club), Kano, Nigeria
- 2015 Faculty of Arts Award for the Best Graduating Student in the Department of History, University of Lagos, Nigeria
- 2015 Best Graduating Student in the department of History (Late Emeritus Prof. Aderibigbe Prize), University of Lagos
- 2015 Ade-Adefuye Memorial Prize, University of Lagos
- 2015 Head of Department Prize, University of Lagos

TEACHING TRAINING

- 2021 Teaching Practicum, University of Florida

COMMUNITY SERVICE

- 2021 Youth Action Campaign Coordinator, American Red Cross, Northeast Florida Chapter (Gainesville)
- 2019 Project Manager, Abiye Africa Initiative (Organizing awareness and sensitization programs on maternal health in rural communities.)
- 2016-2017 Volunteer for Awareness on HIV/AIDS, Karaye, Kano State, Nigeria.
- 2013-2014 Volunteer for Project Great Minds – Entrepreneurial Action in Us (ENACTUS) -Organizing vocational trainings for primary and secondary school students.