

celebrating our 20th anniversary!

The Institute of Hispanic-Latino Cultures advocates on behalf of Hispanic Latina/o populations and offers support to the University of Florida and the Gainesville community through various programs, resources, and networking opportunities in order to help facilitate cultural awareness, social justice, and empowerment.

1504 W. University Avenue
Gainesville, FL 32603
352-294-3563

ihlc.multicultural.ufl.edu
facebook.com/LaCasitaUF
Email: lacasita@multicultural@ufl.edu

Established May 17th, 1994

January 30th
6-8pm

Cafe Cultural: Unveiling Our Past

This project completed by the fall 2013 Samuel Proctor Oral History Project intern class highlights sentiments from students and staff about La Casita and its role at UF. Located at the Institute of Hispanic-Latino Cultures.

February 25th
4-6pm

No Spic for President

Alumni Gil Sanchez speaks on the troubling event that occurred when he ran for student body president. He will be interviewed by Dr. Paul Ortiz and introduced by student body Vice President, Joselyn Rivas. Located at the Institute of Hispanic-Latino Cultures.

March 18th
3-5pm

What is Latino?

A panel on Latino identity with University of Florida professors in Pugh Hall room 210.

April 25th
6-9pm

Nuestras Historias Documentary

Watch a documentary created by the Samuel Proctor Oral History Project focused on the history of the Institute of Hispanic Latino Cultures. Located in the Ocora in Pugh Hall.

April 26th
12 - 2pm

The Labor of Our Stories

La Casita will open its doors to graduating seniors who can participate in our T-Shirt project. Students will decorate T-Shirts in order to capture the labor of their UF journey and pay tribute to the work their families did to help them graduate from college.

SAMUEL PROCTOR
ORAL HISTORY PROGRAM